MEDICINAL

Of the face of a healthful woman with the face of one who is sick proves that quitr often a sad face is a sick face. Many a woman has credit for a sunny disposition who would soon be sad of face and irritable of temper if she had to endure the womanly ills which many of her sex have borne for years.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cuves the diseases whi' a are the source of so much pain and suffering to women. It establishes regularity, dries debilitating drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

ceration and cures female weakness.

Mrs. Cornelia Henson, of Coalton, Boyd Co., Ky., writes: "In October 1880 I gave birth to a baby and the freatment I received at the hands of the midwife left me with falling of the uterus. I had no health to speak of for three years. I had another baby which was the third child. My health began to fail and I found myself completely worn out. I had so many pains and aches my life was a burden to me and also to all the family, for I was nervous and cross and I could not sleep. Had four doctors come to see me but at last found I was slowly dying. The doctors said I had liver, lung and uterine trouble. I was in hed for months and when I did get up I was a sight to behold. I looked like a corpse walking about. I commenced to take Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription, Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pellets,' and ever since then I have been a well woman. I have suffered all a woman could suffer at my monthly period until since I began the use of Dr. Pierce's medicines, but now I can say I have no pain. The dark circles around my eyes are going away and I feel better in every way. My cheeks are red and my akin is white, but before it was as yellow as saffron." Accept no substitute for "Pavorite Prescription" there is nothing just as good for weak and sick women Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are easy and pleasant to take. A most effective laxative.

BETTINA GIRARD.

Asstated yesterday illness has again saught Bettina Girard, former society belle, actress and slave to the pace that has killed many of her kind, and once more the doors of Bellevue Hospital in New York have opened to receive her.

Many times before she, that was once Mise Bettina Ordway, daughter of Col. Ordway, and a leader in Washington's society, has been in the ward of a char-ity hospital; many times she has been down so low that no one believed she would ever recover her careless, lighthearted manner and again mingle in the fast set where she had long been a bright particular star.

But she seemed to bear a charmed iife, and even three months on Black-wells' island could not curb bermad desire for excitement and admiration.

The sensational doings that have been crowded into her thirty-three years of life bave set their mark upon the face of Bettius Girard, however, and this may be her last visit to Bellevue. At least her undermined constitution has limits, and the hospital physicians tear she may have played her last card to the merry, reckless game in which see has lost so much and gained so

Miss Girard-the name still clings to her despite the fact that she has had no less than six acknowledged husbands-was to have appeared at a theatre Moowas to have appeared at a theatre Mon-day night, but her condition made it impossible. RICHARD HARDING'S WORS .- Richard Harding Davis seems to be enjoyng a recrudescence of popularity. At any rate, a story about him is always in order. Here is the lates:; Mrs. Davis centered several fine exhibits in the rehe exhibition Mr. and Mrs. Davis made daily trips to Naw York from their some at Marion, Mass. On one of these trips, while in the smoker, Mrs. Davis was accosted by a stranger of

Davis was accossed by "sporty" appearance,
"Are you Mr.—?" asked the stranger, aming a prominent dog fancier.
"I am not," replied Davis calmly.
"No?" exclaimed the stranger, seating himself at Mr. Davis side. "Well, really you resemble him very much. Indeed, I can hardly be persuaded that ou are not he."

"I assure you that you are quite mistaken," replied the story writer, naughtily, 'I am Mr. Davis—Richard Harding Davis." The sporting gentleman regarded one seatmate with an air of deference

"Jove! you don't mean to tell me that you're the husband of Mrs. Davis, the owner of Woodcote Jumbo? Why, man, I'm powerful glad to meet you. Chat dog is one of the finest animals that ever sat on a bench. And so you're ber husband? My, my, it don't seem possible, does it? Will you have one of these cigars? They are not"—

But Mr. Davie had vanished.—
[Rochester Post-Dispatch. MADE CONTORTIONS .- Atmospheric conditions have charged the building in which Dr. Herman Marcus lives, at Atlantic City, N. J., with electricity in such a manner as to slarm the occupants of the house. Shocks are received

FOR YOUNG FOLKS.

Are there any boys or girls in your home?
If so, do you want them to grow up familiar with the best literature and art, and with all their best impulses quickened? There is a their best impulses quickened? There is a way to do it at an expense of less than one cent a day—a way to have in your home the greatest educational influence of our time.

"St. Nicholass for Young Folks" is the medium—a magazine absolutely unequalled in the literature of the world. It is recommended by educators everywhere—it contains only the very lost and most helpful and entertaining literature, and it is illustrated by the greatest of American illustrators, some new features are to be introduced into this famous periodical—one is the printing of long stories complete in a single number—no serials. A splendid group of stories by the best living writers for young folks has been gathered for this purpose.

"NATURE STUDY"
Is now a great feature of St. Nicholas. The young readors ask questions and they are answered in a department called "Nature and Science." Private schools take the magazine for this alone. The "St. Nicholas League" is an organization of St. Nicholas readers wherein prizes are offered for the best pictures, stories, poems, etc.
